Short Term Course in Personality Development

Personality is the collective exposure of personal character traits of an individual which includes actions, thoughts, feelings, and emotional expressions. Psychology treats personality development as an ongoing and dynamic process which is largely impacted by the environment that surrounds an individual.

We all are born with unique skills, traits and qualities. In the same way we are also born with our own unique physical futures. These psychological factors together with physical factors determine the unique personality that we develop in this world.

Aim of the Course:

The course aims to bring into awareness both the physical and psychological faculties of an individual and to put them for greater use to bring out the highest potentialities of individual.

Course Description

In this Personality Development course you will learn in-depth information about personalities. You will gain a better understanding about those around you and also more about who you are and how you got to be that way.

This course starts with a basic introduction of personality. It then goes on to look at theories of personality development, the stages of development theories, key researchers in personality psychology, and the main influences on personality development. You will also delve into looking at basic personality traits, including values, beliefs, and nature versus nurture. You will learn about your own personality and how you can use that information in career choices and to make changes. You will also learn about some personality disorders and how to put all the information together to use it to your personal or career advantage.

With this course you can literally stop wondering about why you or someone you know behaves in a particular way. By the time you complete this course you will know how someone's personality develops and how that information can be useful.

This course is especially helpful for those who are striving to learn more about who they are, which direction their life should take, and understanding others around them. This course is also great for those working in human resources and want to learn more about personalities and how that may impact hiring new professionals.
